

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to express my support for requiring all telecommunications companies to remove all line-item fees on their bills. All costs of operations and cost of complying with government regulation should be built into the companies' rates. This will allow for a more accurate comparison of cost when choosing a telecommunications carrier.

Sincerely,

John Martin
Sprint PCS Customer
Cox Communications Customer